

I am urging the FCC to reject petition 04-160. To me the local stations represent a real service to myself. I never found traffic reports of any value until XM Radio entered the game. Plus I find it very interesting to have the ability as a consumer to hear about traffic and weather in other cities of the country. In my opinion - the service should be expanded to include local news, local sports, and local events.